Owen Borges and Branson Laszlo present Crucible, a plaster model of Le Corbusier's Carpenter Center that mimics not only his "calm and powerful" design, but also the process by which the building was constructed. Crucible is accompanied by It Leaks! by Phoebe West and Cynthia Gu, Addition by Lia Mondavi and Kate Schember, and Mirror by Ryan Chester and Kate Steinman.

Kiyoto Koseki presents Bench-A Choreographic Workshop. This workshop will utilize gestures taken from everyday behavior to generate an algorithmic choreography that will culminate in a collective performance. RSVP to kkoseki@gsd.harvard.edu to participate.
